RESPECTED COLORED MERCHANT DIES

George L. A. Cabell, whose illness was previously noted, died Friday night at 11 o'clock, aged 63 years. He will be buried Sunday afternoon at three o'clock from the Augusta street M. E. church, in Fairview cemetery. He had been for a great many years one of the leading members of this church, and he possessed the confidence and respect of all who knew him in his long residence in Staunton. He was born on Middle River, and had resided here since the close of the civil war. He is survived by his wife; and one son, John; also by two brothers, John of Chicago, and Wash Cabell, of Staunton. He was a member of the colored Odd Fellows and Masons, who will take part in the funeral ceremonies.
