RESILIENCY FUND

resilience: an ability to recover from or adjust easily to misfortune or change

THANK YOU!

After fifty years of bipartisan support, Congress voted in July to eliminate federal funding for all public media nationwide, including more than $200,000 of annual support to Aspen Public Radio, which is over 10% of the station's budget.

BUT WE ARE FIGHTING BACK.

On October 1, 2025, Aspen Public Radio launched a campaign to raise $500,000, and thanks to the generosity of this community, we have exceeded our fundraising goal to keep Aspen Public Radio resilient, in service to this place we all love.

TOTAL RAISED: $640,646

This Administration's decision to cut off federal funding was to threaten and punish public media and curtail free speech. Stations nationwide, including Aspen Public Radio, are working to defend the First Amendment's protections for freedom of speech and association, and freedom of the press. We need an independent press and we need an engaged citizenry.

Thank you for defending local journalism and for joining this fight to protect our democracy.

STAY INFORMED. STAY CONNECTED. KEEP LISTENING.
