Lydia Clemmons Heads New 4-H In Charlotte

CHARLOTTE — Lydia Clemmons was elected president of the newly organized "Greenbush Workers 4-H Club."

The organizational meeting was held at the home of the leader, Mrs. J. Lynwood Smith Jr.

Other officers elected were: Maurine Brooker, vice president; Heather Smith, secretary; Patty Lotz, treasurer; Lynn Moureau, news reporter; Linda Moureau, cheerleader and games leader; Lisa Laberge, sons, and Maurine Brooker, health.

The club has formed its constitution and bylaws.

Meetings will be held Fridays from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the Smith or Clemmons home.

The first and third meetings of each month will be business meetings featuring speakers, demonstrations or community service projects.

Work meetings, for cooking and sewing projects, will be held the second and fourth Fridays of each month.

Mrs. Smith will be the project leader for cooking and Mrs. Jackson J. Clemmons the project leader for sewing.

Membership has been restricted to 9-year-old girls living near the Greenbush Road.

Anyone desiring to volunteer as a 4-H Club leader may contact Mrs. Smith for information.
