Membership at Spokane Public Radio

After several years of "Calm Drives," Challenge Weeks, and shorter on-air drives we are doing something new—a Hybrid Drive! It's a traditional seven-day model with case, messaging, and most importantly YOU! What is different is that we will start off with three days of Cyber Drive (Sunday-Tuesday), make your contribution on-line on our website, followed by four days (Wednesday-Saturday) of guests pitching on-air from our studios, phones ringing, and the excitement of a traditional fund drive. Our Fall Hybrid-Drive, October 22-28, will allow us to reach out and ask Why Not?

Why not become a Sustaining Member? Monthly giving is quick and convenient and provides a predictable source of income for SPR. Why not share with your friends and neighbors the benefits of supporting Spokane Public Radio? SPR serves 20,000 sq. miles of the INW. Why not add SPR to your estate planning? It is a wonderful way to support! Why not, financially support SPR, to guarantee you will always have access to the local and national news, arts, culture, and events that you have come to expect on SPR airwaves! Thank you for supporting SPR!

For more information please give us a call at 509-328-5729 or visit our website at www.spokanepublicradio.org/membership. Thank you for supporting SPR!

Election Coverage

Spokane Public Radio reporters are talking with candidates this fall and recording forums for the radio to give you information that can help you decide for whom to vote in November.

It's an important year for municipal elections in Spokane with Mayor Nadine Woodward seeking re-election in a high-profile race against former state Senator Lisa Brown. It's one of the most expensive campaigns in Washington and already has the attention of people all over the state. Big changes are coming to the Spokane City Council as voters will also elect a new council president and two new members. It will be interesting to see the political tilt of the new council and the working relationship it will have with the mayor.

At the time I write this, we're planning to carry some or all of the KSPS Public Television debates that feature the council candidates. Brandon Hollingsworth, Rebecca White and I may be participating in some of them. We're also hoping to air a forum featuring the mayoral (and perhaps council president) candidates. Check back at our website (SpokanePublicRadio.org) for the latest information about the programs we're scheduling for the radio.

The three of us will also produce stories about individual races and ballot measures, some of them in communities outside the city of Spokane. For example, in September, Rebecca featured the candidates in two Cheney City Council races. You can hear those stories during Morning Edition and All Things Considered and read them on the web.

Then, on Election Night, we will post results on our website and provide coverage of those results the next morning on the radio.

It's always gratifying when we hear from listeners who say our coverage helped them learn about candidates they knew little or nothing about. Please let us know if you find our stories helpful when you do your research before you cast your ballots. We hope we're providing a valuable public service.

Program Updates

Concert of the Week

Mondays from 7 p.m.- 9 p.m. on KPBX 91.1

After a summer hiatus, Concert of the Week returns. Each week, host Jim Tevenan highlights performances from the Inland Northwest and around the world. The series kicked off the last Monday of September with the Spokane Symphony's Masterworks 1, A Place Called Home.

Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra

Wednesdays from 8 p.m.- 10 p.m. on KPBX 91.1

The Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra is one of the country's most artistically vibrant and innovative orchestras. Led by Ken-David Masur, the MSO has captivated audiences since 1959.

Nacho Celtic Hour

Sundays from 2 p.m.- 3 p.m. on KPBX 91.1

Nacho Celtic Hour host Caridwen Irvine-Spatz brings the program back after a summer break. Nacho Celtic Hour explores acoustic music from many traditions, mainly focused on music from the Celtic diaspora- especially if it has a local connection.

Inside Olympia

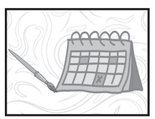
Sundays from 7 a.m.- 8 a.m. on KSFC 91.9

Hosted by award-winning journalist Austin Jenkins, Inside Olympia provides an in-depth look at the work taking place in and around Washington state's Capitol.

Soundspace

Sundays from 9 p.m.- 11 p.m. on KPBX 91.1

Soundspace host Zan Agzigian gears up for the tenth year of the program. Leading up to January 2024, Zan will run a retrospect of past shows and interviews. Hear Zan's favorites, fan favorites, and other special moments from the program's ten years.



Arts Calendar

Throughout the Day on KPBX 91.1

The Arts Calendar is back! This short segment airs on KPBX at regular times in the morning, afternoon and early evening with a curated rundown of noteworthy arts events across the region. The selections are handpicked by our staff and updated every day.
