KDNK Trivia Quiz Answers

What will you find at the top of the totem pole in front of KDNK on 2nd St.? A top hat.

Who said: “You're listening to my two favorite ladies, Katy and Kay?” Monk. BONUS POINT: What was that DJ's radio name? Lark Ellen. EXTRA BONUS POINT: What was the name of his show? Good Noise

Bill Wooley's show was called Yesterday and Today*.

Harlan Feder did a popular show in the 90s featuring music from the Caribbean. He called it Radio Free No Name*.

Before it was the Flash Cafe it was The Flash Attack*.

There has to be at least one place in a community radio station that you can turn up to 11 with no distortion, right? Who donated the Tannoy Speakers in the air studio and the production room to KDNK? Rico Torres.

Name as many Music Directors over the decades as you can. Richard (Ribo) Flaven, Missy Bowen Ochs, Carol Wilson, Nancy Festa, Skip Naft, Chip ?, Luke Nestler, Cody Lee.

Name as many Station Managers over the decades as you can. Pat Noel, Wick Moses, Virginia Squier, Steve Skinner (twice), Steve Rubick, Julie Ross, Cindy Lindsay, Allen Scott, Mary Suma, Shawna Claiborne (Sprowls), Gavin Dahl, Corby Anderson, Greg Albrecht.

Name as many News Reporters as you can. Maura Masters, Annie Pizey, Steve Zelaznick, Conrad Wilson, Mat Katz, Eric Skalac, Ed Williams, Gavin Dahl, Marilyn Gleason, Ken ?, Amy Hadden Marsh, Kathleen Shannon, Morgan Neely, Hattison Rensberry, Raleigh Burleigh, Lucas Turner, Mark Duggan

Who is the Wholly Bozo? Terry Glasenapp.

Some weeks it's Women's Voices. Other weeks it's Women's Voices and the Detour. After more than 30 years, who is still the DJ for that show? Annie McIntosh.

Who does a special show every Martin Luther King Day? DB.
BONUS POINT: What is the name of his show? The Gospel of Music.

Who originated Celtic Thunder? Fred Geis.

Who was the last Celtic Thunder DJ? Kim Shannon.

Art Ackerman does the Swing Swing Swing show.

The only Travis Cox.

Who says “turn me on, tune me in? Art Ackerman of Swing Swing Swing.

Carolyn Cipperley is DJ Good. BONUS POINT: What did she call her show? The Stop Drop and Roll show..

DJ Jero does a show on Friday night called Jero's Vibe.

Who is the Frog Princess? Suzy Darrow.

What were KDNK's original frequencies? 90.5, 88.3, 100.1.

Who are the co-pathetic cowboys? Bob Schultz and Jeff Dickinson.

What is the name of the show they do? Merle and the Chameleon show.

Michael Francisco does a Sunday reggae show. His radio name is DJ Cool Runnings.

Dan Giese's radio name is Diesel Dan.

Uncle Acid does a show called Heavy Metal from Hell.

Cowboy Randy always finished his show with the song Happy Trails. BONUS POINT: Name the artists who did that song? Roy Rogers and Dale Evans.

The show that was originally affiliated with the Stomparillaz is now called The We-Ness.

The raunchiest show in KDNK's history was The Neil and Bob show. BONUS POINT: What was the last name (radio name) of those DJs? Neil Down and Bob Moore.

Todd Hartley, aka The Commodore, used to do a show called KaDunkafuNK.

When Kat Rich did the Community Calendar she always signed off with: "Now get out there and have some fun."

For more than three decades Roy Rickus did a Sunday evening jazz show called Loch Dinkel Monster Jazz.

Leslie Johnson calls her show Les Is More. BONUS POINT: In the old days Leslie always played The Grateful Dead at 9:00,

The DJ name for Brandon Jones is Benedict Thunderbuns.

Sister Kate and Brother Philbert do a show called The Sideshow. BONUS POINT: They end every show with All You Need Is Love.

Sister Sisters.

The Manny & Maria But Manny's Not Here show.

Who always signed on with: " Hello boys and girls, cats & kitties out there in radio land?" Wick Moses. BONUS POINT: What was the name of that show? Wicked Jazz.

Who always signed off with “This is your old saddle buddy Cowboy Randy, demanding that you have yourself an absolutely mah-velous weekend. Adios.”

What did Cowboy Randy call his show? Quack & Country.

Amber Sparkles has a show called Hey Y'all. BONUS POINT: Amber's current DJ name is Spinstress Sparkles.

The first song ever played on KDNK on April 15, 1983 was Birthday by The Beatles.

The second song ever played on KDNK was You Turn Me On I'm a Radio by Joni Mitchell.

Before she was ever a news person at KDNK, Amy Hadden Marsh was the Jazz Maniac. BONUS POINT: What was the name of the public affairs show Amy did for many years? Valley Voices.

The Cheshire Cat did a show called Jamburger & Fries.

A truckdriver and gator farmer named Little Willie often called in on the Jake & Jane show. He sometimes said: “The bigger the buckle, the smaller the willie.”

Who famously said: “A little dead air never killed anybody?” Susie J.

Who famously said: “Don't touch your knob.” Steve Skinner

Gerry Johnston was the Copacetic Cowboy. He most recently did a show called The Superannuated Show. His show was for the old, the antiquated, the superannuated. BONUS POINT: Patsy Montana did the theme song for this show. It was called The Colorado Waltz.

DJ Billy Bob Speaks does a show called Billy Bob's Revenge.

Shimmy Shimmy Koko Bop is the theme song for the Shimmy Shack show. BONUS POINT: What was the radio name of this DJ? Miz Moon.

The sign on for this show is “Greetings indigenous Earthlings, the time is now and this is KDNK, Carbondale Community Access Radio, Glenwood Springs, Carbondale, the Roaring Fork Valley and Beyond. It's time to go Beyond Beyond. BONUS POINT: Who does this show? Luke Nestler EXTRA BONUS POINT: What is the sign-off for this show? “Please remember to go forward in all directions.”

Potato Bill Revival.

Sherese Chretien had a Saturday night show called Java Jazz, where she played mostly Brazilian music.

Cow Patty.

For many years Jeff Britt did a Sunday night mostly world music show called The New Eclectic Sampler.

Eric Berry's show EB's Eclectic Mania always opens with a song by the Left Hand String Band called Get Me Out of This City.

Pastor Mustard migrated downvalley to greener pastures here at KDNK just a few years ago. He does a shticky but fun professorial show called Bluegrass with Mustard.

Jammin' Jim did a show called Monkey Business.

Gavin Dahl's show was called Tender.

Bob Schwinger often told very off-the-wall stories that were so implausible they seemed real. He called his show What Now?

Steve Cole hosted Morning Edition on KDNK for 14 years. But he also did a music show called My Show.

Jean Marie Hegarty used to do a show called The Acoustic Coffeehouse.

Nancy Smith's show lasted for more than 25 years. What night was her show? Monday.

Paula Stepp was the Acousic Renegade.

Andrea Marsh is Soul Sister Drea.

April Spaulding does a show every Friday morning called The Wild Rumpus. BONUS POINT: What is her radio name? Ape on the Dink. EXTRA BONUS POINT: What song does she always sign off with? Ape Man by the Kinks.

Charlie Wertheim did a very obscure Scandinavian and Japanese punk show called Descent Into the Maelstrom.

Susie Strode was Madame Gumbo. Her show was called the Music Gumbo Show.

Greg Benson's show was called SOL. BONUS POINT: What did those 3 letters stand for? Soundtrack of Life EXTRA BONUS POINT: What was Greg's DJ name? DJ Phathead.

Mary Ferguson did a talk show for many years in the 80s and 90s called This I Remember.

Nina Dropcho (nee Scnipper) did a bluegrass show on Saturday morning for many years. What did she call her show? Smokin' Grass.

Doug Tucker was the DJ for the Jack Kerouac's Grandkids show. BONUS POINT: What was the name of the theme song for that show? LSD Is the Bomb.

Allen Scott did a Wednesday afternoon jazz show for a few years called Top Floor Jazz.

The sign-on for a popular show on Saturday at noon back in the 90s and early aughts was “Hello Americans, stand by for blues.” BONUS POINT: Who was the DJ who said that? Bubba Flemington.

A former station manager once did a jamband show called The Festivarian Express. BONUS POINT: What was this person's name? Shawna Claiborne (Sprowls)

Big Daddy always starts his Rock n' Blues show with comedy.

Marc Grandbois did a show called Black & Blue.

Nancy Q did a show for 28 years, but it had at least 8 different names. How many can you remember? Women's Voice, Ain't Nothin' But a She Thang, Nancy Q & Hayden Too, Good Noise, Loose Change, Fresh Trax, Amen Sistah, A Girl & Her Headphones.

The name of Steve Skinner's show in the 80s was Crusty Twinkies. The name of his show in the aughts and teens was Miss Management.

In the early 90s KDNK was the first radio station to carry a new syndicated program based in Boulder. What was the name of that show? e-Town. Does KDNK still run this show? yes

Mike Lemmer was All Mixed Up.

Amy Kimberley, Kat Rich and Luke Nestler started an arts talk show in 2009 called Express Yourself. Is that program still running? Yes.

Name the two locations during its history where the KDNK studios were located. Upstairs in the Dinkel Building and the old Town Hall at 76 S. 2nd St.

Former All-American Buddy Barnett.

After Cowboy Randy rode off into the sunset, the High Mountain Revue began. It was hosted by two guys whose radio names were Pearly Ashcroft and Collbran McClure.

Walter Gallacher has won awards for his KDNK public affairs show called Immigrant Stories.

In the early days, who was it that Rocked These Rockies every Tuesday, comfortably sandwiched between Crusty Twinkies and New Dimensions? Cherilynn Tassos.

Will Evans has hosted a very thoughtful public affairs show called Shifting Gears for more than a decade.

The Living Permaculture show, hosted by Jerome Osentowski, is the longest-tenured sustainablility show on KDNK.

“Pull the batteries out of that smoke detector cuz we are cookin' in the kitchen, The Blues Kitchen, that is.”

Rock Monster and Country Bumpkin.

For some time in the late 90s/early aughts there was a one-hour Broadway show tunes show called Talking Broadway. Who did that show? Doug Rintell

For at least a decade there was a children's story hour on Sunday evening. Soul Sista Drea did it the longest. She called it the Funky Phantom Trollbooth show. But she took that show over from Mark Ross.

Who was the DJ who often played music all night long? He was also responsible for digitizing a lot of sound effects and creating his own, as well as creating a bunch of really great, sound-dense, multi multi-track IDs and promos. And he has probably volunteered more hours than any other person in KDNK's history. Social.

Throughout KDNK's history, it seems like there's always been at least one DJ who specializes in the music of New Orleans. The current NOLA expert is John Henderson on alternating Saturday nights (a perfect night for NO music, right?). His radio name is NOLA J. He calls his show The Crescent City Connection. Can you name a few other DJs who loved and played New Orleans music? Missy Bowen-Ochs, Madam Gumbo, ….

Modern Marty plays only new music on Monday afternoons. He calls his show Fresh Tracks.

Ken Jones has a Monday evening show called The Transistor Archives. You'll hear anything from hard bop to classic rock to gut bucket blues to Greenwich Village folk.

The original host for Geek Speak was Mark Burrows. Soon thereafter he was joined by Neal Pollack. Their radio names were Chief Chairman Mark and Captain Father Neal. The current hosts are Matt McBrayer and Louie Girardot. What station manager was also a host for that show for a long time? Steve Skinner.

His German accent is perfect for a classical music show. His name is Werner Neff. But there have been at least seven people who have done a classical show on KDNK. Name as many as you can. Steve Hunt, Dave Kolstad, Linda Criswell, Art Ackerman, Dave Klein Mike Rosenbaum and Skip Naft

Mark Wolfe did the Phantom Toothpaste show.

Skip Naft did the You Never Know show. BONUS POINT: Why was Skip's nickname Dr. Skip Naft? Because he was the Music Director (MD).

The Herb Green Experience.

Back in the mid-90s a comedy series aired on KDNK by a local comedy co-operative called Flicker Noise. It lasted about 10 episodes and then dissolved away into memories, and it probably marked the first time something was rejected by KAJX and picked up by KDNK.

Missy Bowen-Ochs was the MD/PD in the late 80s/early 90s. What was the name of her show? Goin' Down the Road Felling Glad

In the 90s, Rex Van Minnen did a spoken word/poetry/cool jazz show called the Twilight Beat Cafe

Before there was Art Ackerman and Swing Swing Swing, there was Gil Colestock doing a show called Swingtime in the Rockies.

Just about every DJ will play the Grateful Dead once in a while, but there has always been at least one show that really focused on the Dead. The show that fits that bill these days is Chasing the Groove and the radio name for that DJ is Grateful Ed.

Goo-goo-ch-goob. Pedro Rivera is the Walrus, and the name of his show is La Cultura Viva.

If it's acoustic, what we used to call ethnic, and the lyrics are in Spanish it's probably the Just Desserts show with Raleigh Burleigh.

Jenell might be the bubbliest DJ on the air today. Her show is Pay It Forward and it's on Sunday night..