FUNERAL TODAY

Harold F. H. Cabell, colored son of the late W. J. H. (Wash) Cabell died March 4 at the veteran hospital, Dayton, O., after a lingering illness.

Although born in Staunton, he had lived away for over twenty years. He was drafted into the army at Petersburg, received his training at Camp Lee, and was later transferred to Camp Meade, Md., from which he was honorably discharged from the army.

Surviving are two sisters, Mary E. Cabell and Mrs. Emma C. Smith; two cousins, Joan S. Cabell, Petersburg, and Mrs. Myrtle Downey, Staunton.

Funeral services will be held from Hamrick funeral home this afternoon at two-thirty o'clock, conducted by the Rev. J. E. Dotson, pastor of the Augusta Street M. E. church. Pallbearers will be from the Dodson-Jenkins post of the American legion.
