

Do you miss Classical music on the radio? If so, WEKU has a solution for you.

If you live in Central and Eastern Kentucky, WEKU offers a completely free service to help you receive WEKU Classical, our digital 24-hour-a day Classical radio station in your home and your car. WEKU Classical broadcasts favorites including the Metropolitan Opera and Performance Today. You can view the program schedule here.

You only need the following to listen to WEKU Classical:

- Wireless internet at home
- A listening device: Radio/TV or Bluetooth speaker
- A smartphone or tablet – Iphone or Android device

WEKU staff will travel to your home, set up listening equipment and show you how to listen to the station at home and in your car. We can also walk you through the setup process over the phone if you prefer.

There is no charge for this service as this is part of our public service mission to serve the community with arts and cultural programming.

WEKU Classical broadcasts on the internet using a high-quality signal that is clearer and cleaner than traditional radio broadcast.

Want more information?

Contact WEKU Director & General Manager Mike Savage at mike.savage@eku.edu or call 859-622-1662