Reporting Period: 12/1/2021 – 11/30/2022
No. of Full-time Employees: More than 10
Small Market Exemption: No

During the Reporting Period, a total of thirteen (13) full-time positions were filled. The information required by FCC Rule 73.2080(c)(6) is provided below.

INITIATIVES

The employment unit engaged in the following broad outreach initiatives in accordance with various elements of FCC Rule 73.2080(c)(2):

1) Established an internship program designed to assist members of the community in acquiring skills needed for broadcast employment.

   a) Between December 1, 2021, and November 30, 2022, NHPR hosted two interns during our summer internship program. One intern came to us from Manchester Community College (Manchester, NH), and one came to us from the Craig Newmark School of Journalism at the City University of New York (New York City, NY). The interns learned about different of aspects of NHPR's operations, including news reporting and podcast production, through hands-on supervised work. Staff organized training sessions for the summer interns on cyber research and data analysis, finding your voice, the art of the interview, and finding jobs in journalism. The interns were at NHPR from June 6, 2022, to August 12, 2022.

2) Participation in scholarship programs directed to students who want to pursue a career in broadcasting.

   a) NHPR participated in the Student Broadcaster Scholarship Program through the New Hampshire Association of Broadcasters (NHAB).

3) Participation in job fairs by station personnel with hiring responsibilities

a) The Director of People Operations participated in two virtual career fairs hosted by the New Hampshire Association of Broadcasters (June 06 – June 10, 2022, and Sept 12 - 16, 2022).

4) Established training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.

a) NHPR established the Couch Fellowship for Innovation, which enables entry level individuals with an interest in public media to acquire skills by training and working in one or more NHPR department. Our most recent Couch Fellow started in November 2022.
