V.

Logan Lavar Clegg DOB (1/24/1996)

Now comes Detective Tanner Palermo, affiant, being duly sworn and on oath deposes and says they have probable cause to believe Logan Lavar Clegg DOB (1/24/1996) has committed the crime of:

a. Fugitive from Justice in violation of Title 13 V.S.A. 4954

1. On 10/12/2022, I was notified that members of Vermont State Police Tactical Services Unit (TSU) along with Detectives from the Concord Police Department had taken into custody an individual identified as Logan Lavar Clegg DOB (1/24/1996). Clegg was previously identified as having an active extraditable Arrest Warrant from Logan Police Department in Logan, Utah.

2. Detectives with Concord Police Department in New Hampshire were in Vermont attempting to locate Clegg, who is a person of interest in an ongoing investigation through Concord Police. Clegg was located at the South Burlington Public Library by members of Concord Police Department and TSU, who identified him and took him into custody.

3. I obtained a copy of the arrest warrants which indicates Clegg is wanted for a Probation Violation stemming from an incident for which he was convicted of the following:

    a. Theft by receiving stolen property – Third Degree Felony
    b. Fail to stop at command of law enforcement – Class A Misdemeanor
    c. Burglary – Third Degree Felony
    d. Theft – Third Degree Felony

4. According to the report from Utah Adult Probation and Parole, on 11/9/2020 Clegg was placed on probation with their office with conditions to attend courses, serve 72 days in jail, maintain employment, and maintain contact with the office. Clegg failed to report to a meeting with AP&P on 7/7/2021. All attempts to locate him since that date had failed until today when he was arrested.

5. An Investigator with HSI reported to Concord Police that Clegg flew from Chicago O'Hare to Lisbon, Portugal on June 21, 2021, and did not return to the United States until November 7, 2021. Clegg failed to appear at his AP&P meeting because he had fled the country to Portugal several weeks prior to the hearing.

6. The arrest warrants were issued by the First District Cache County court in the State of Utah on 7/21/2021. The warrants were signed by the honorable Spencer D Walsh. Copies of these warrants are attached to the affidavit.

7. Utah Criminal Code Section 73-3-203 indicates that Third Degree Felonies are punishable for a term not to exceed five years. Utah Criminal Code Section 76-3-301 indicates that Class A Misdemeanors are punishable by a fine of up to $2500.

8. In Vermont Statutes:

    a. Burglary - Title 13 VSA 1201, is punishable by imprisonment of not more than 15 years.

    b. Grand Larceny – Title 13 VSA 2501, is punishable by imprisonment of not more than 10 years and Petit Larceny – Title 13 VSA 2502, is punishable by imprisonment of not more than 1 year. It is unclear from the Utah Arrest Warrant whether the equivalent charge to 'Theft" would be Grand or Petit Larceny. However, it is listed as a Third-Degree Felony in Utah.

    c. Resisting Arrest – Title 13 VSA 3017, is punishable by imprisonment of not more than 1 year. This is the closest equivalent Vermont charge to Utah's "Fail to stop at command of law enforcement."

    d. Receiving Stolen Property – Title 13 VSA 2561, is punishable by the same as for the stealing of such property, or the same punishment for Grand Larceny or Petit Larceny as described in paragraph B.

9. On 10/12/2022 I spoke with Chief Deputy Tony Baird of the Cache County Attorney's Office who advised he was the individual responsible for authorizing extradition, and he advised his office was willing to extradite Clegg to Utah on the warrants. Baird provided me written documentation via email indicating he was willing to extradite.

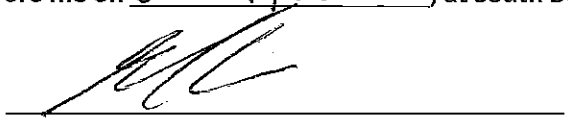

10. The original Arrest Warrant, Probation violation report, and copies of the extradition authorization are attached to this affidavit.

11. Detective Gorham with Concord Police Department reported that Clegg is the suspect in a double homicide that occurred in Concord New Hampshire in April, 2022. Clegg is considered highly dangerous, and is a transient male with no ties to the community. On October 11th 2022 Concord PD received information that Clegg purchased a one-way plane ticket from JFK Airport at 0030 on 10/14/22 heading to Berlin, Germany on flight number N0 602. Given the nature of the investigation and the potential for flight from prosecution, I am requesting Clegg be held without bail.
