PROGRAM NOTES

WAMC

Welcome to November!

Halloween has rounded its corner, and so the holiday season is officially here! Let WAMC keep you company these upcoming weeks, with news coverage you can count own and programming you can always look forward too. We've got some specials coming up this month so be sure to check in for the latest programming changes and updates on wamc.org.

Veterans Day

November 11th is Veterans Day! Here's what you can look forward too:

At 9am you'll be listening to the Hereos of the Vietnam War , covering covers media coverage of the war, U.S. political leaders of the day and the music and entertainment of the era.

Following this program at 10am we'll be airing How Veterans Find Healing After War, where we explore the different paths veterans take to heal their invisible wounds.

At 12pm, tune into From the Vault's special episode covering the music of the armed forces.

Reel Music: Patriotic Films will be airing at 2pm. You'll hear themes from some of cinema's most patriotic films: Independence Day, Air Force One, Apollo 13, Captain America, and more.

Finally, at 3pm, you'll hear Students & Soldiers: Captivating Stories From Montana Veterans, where twelve veterans will share some of the most influential experiences of their lives with their teen-aged interviewers.

The Metropolitan Opera

Get ready! The Met Opera will be on your airwaves starting Dec. 5th, so mark your calendars.

REGULAR PROGRAMMING

During November on The Academic Minute we'll feature a mid-month takeover week from Lafayette College in Pennsylvania. Topics during this week will include understanding the unequal health returns of socioeconomic status, the cultural history of engineering advancements that built America and soccer's century-long fight to gain a permanent place in American sports.

For Veteran's Day we'll present a segment from a University of Connecticut professor who speaks on finding common ground with his Iraqi interpreter during a time of war. On Midterm Election Day we'll examine how term limits open doors for women candidates. During Black Friday we'll discuss urban vs rural demand for package deliveries.

Other interesting tidbits during the month include a look at the Greek virtue of sophrosyne, sonic booms and how human bias shapes social media feeds.

Tune in each weekday at 7:30 a.m. on WAMC or anytime online at academicminute.org.

PROGRAM NOTES

WAMC

This month on Earth Wise: Wildlife populations around the world have declined by an average of 73% over the past 50 years, driven by habitat loss, overexploitation, and climate change. Some species have benefited from conservation efforts, but protecting biodiversity will require broader changes in how we use land and resources. Finding ways to meet human needs while protecting nature is also shaping Japan's solar boom, where abandoned golf courses are being transformed into solar farms. The sites provide inexpensive, flat land with existing connections to the power grid, avoiding the need to clear forests or use farmland.

Discover these and many other stories this month on Earth Wise. Earth Wise airs weekdays at 11:10 a.m. and 4:04 p.m.

This month on Person Place Thing you'll be hearing from Steven Blier, co-founder and artistic director of the New York Festival of Song, Dr. Ted Long, the leader of NYC Health + Hospitals, Shawn(ta) Smith-Cruz, who oversees New York's Municipal Archives and finally Emelie Gevalt an art historian.

Person Place Thing airs Thursdays, at 8:30pm and Fridays at 10:30 p.m.

THE CLIMATE QUESTION
Sundays, 6:30-7 p.m.
A global program that reflects the variety of takes on climate change, how best to understand it and the world's attempts to avert it, temper it or adapt to it. It is not about questioning whether climate change is happening, it's about finding the best ways to respond to it. This is sharp-edged, analytical inquiry. Hard scrutiny, touched with a sense of adventure and discovery, and where we can find it, hope. It includes stories from across the world on why we find it so hard to save our own planet, and how we might change that.

ECHOES ON HD2
Weekdays, 12-2 a.m.
Echoes host John Diliberto, a writer for Billboard, Pulse and other magazines, brings together a wide array of styles, from acoustic to electronic, jazz to space music, the avant-garde to rock. Echoes is a sound that is cross-cultural and trans-millennial, merging cultures and forms, technology and tradition, the ancient past and the possible future.
echoes.org

FREAKONOMICS RADIO
Sundays, 2-3 p.m.
Freakonomics began as a book, which led to a blog, a documentary film, more books, a pair of pants, and in 2010, a podcast called Freakonomics Radio. Hosted by Stephen J. Dubner, it explores things you always thought you knew (but didn't) and things you never thought you wanted to know (but do). Some of our most popular episodes are about the economics of sleep and how to become great at just about anything, plus the true stories of rent control, minimum wage, and the gender pay gap.
freakonomics.com

FRESH AIR
Weekdays, 7-8 p.m.
Fresh Air with Terry Gross, the Peabody Award-winning weekday magazine of contemporary arts and issues. Though Fresh Air has been categorized as a "talk show," it hardly fits the mold. It gives interviews as much time as needed, and complements them with comments from well-known critics and commentators. Fresh Air is produced at WHYY-FM in Philadelphia and broadcast nationally by NPR.

ON THE MEDIA
Monday 8pm.
On the Media is a weekly show that uses the media as a lens to understand our world. On the Media listeners say the show is an essential companion, helping them survive the firehose of media coming at them 24/7. Hosted by Brooke Gladstone and Micah Loewinger, the show does not do 'hot takes', instead offering listeners context, historical parallels, media analysis and often a much appreciated deep exhale. On the Media hosts have an eye on the nuances and details regularly missed by other outlets which helps listeners understand where they should be paying attention (and what they can afford to ignore). Our media diets have untruths woven in, and inconvenient truths left out. These are the bits explored every week at On the Media.

Our theme music was written by bassist/composer Ben Allison.

Transcripts are posted a few days following the release of the audio of an episode.

On The Media

OUTSIDE/IN
Saturday, 7:30am.
Look around, and you'll find everything is connected to the natural world.

At Outside/In, we explore that idea with boundless curiosity. We report from disaster zones, pickleball courts, and dog sled kennels, and talk about policy, pop culture, science, and everything in between.

From the backcountry to your backyard, we tell stories that expand the boundaries of environmental journalism.

SELECTED SHORTS
Wednesdays, 10-11 p.m.
Sundays, 11 a.m.-12 p.m.
Over thirty-five years ago, Selected Shorts was born on the stage at Symphony Space and quickly became one of the best known shows of its kind. The series was conceived with a simple premise: take great stories by well-known and emerging writers and have them brought to life by terrific actors of stage and screen. The radio show is recorded live from performances at the Peter Sharp Theater at Symphony Space in New York, as well as around the US on tours.

TED RADIO HOUR
Tuesdays & Saturdays, 1-2 p.m.
TED Radio Hour investigates the biggest questions of our time with the help of the world's greatest thinkers. Can we preserve our humanity in the digital age? Where does creativity come from? And what's the secret to living longer? In each episode, host Manoush Zomorodi explores a big idea through a series of TED Talks and original interviews, inspiring us to learn more about the world, our communities, and most importantly, ourselves.

THIS AMERICAN LIFE
Sundays, 8-9 p.m.
Saturdays, 4-5 p.m.
This American Life is a weekly public radio program and podcast. Each week we choose a theme and put together different kinds of stories on that theme. Mostly we do journalism, but an entertaining kind of journalism that's built around plot. In other words, stories! Our favorite sorts of stories have compelling people at the center of them, funny moments, big feelings, surprising plot twists, and interesting ideas. Like little movies for radio. TAL is an Peabody Award and Pulitzer prize-winning show hosted by Ira Glass and produced in collaboration with WBEZ Chicago.

TRAVEL WITH RICK STEVES
Sundays, 6-7 a.m.
Rick Steves, America's most respected authority on European travel, empowers Americans to have European trips that are fun, affordable, and culturally broadening. Each week, Rick interviews travel writers, authors, and expert travel guides about the places and concepts that make our world so interesting. The themes and content varies from week to week, with listener callers often adding an extra dimension to the topics.

WAMC JAZZ SHOW
Saturdays, 10 p.m.-12 a.m.

WAMC Jazz Show has been on WAMC since 1987. The show provides a broad range of jazz styles with an emphasis on swing and melody. Many of the programs have a theme, such as performers on a specific instrument, a birthday salute to a famous player or songs associated with changing seasons (summer, Christmas). Bill McCann, host of "The Saturday Morning Edition of Jazz" on WCDB, joined in 2025 as host.

If you want to find out more about something you've heard on the show, please e-mail bmccann@wamc.org.

THE WORLD ON HD2
Weekdays, 5-6 p.m.
The World is a daily global news program. Its goal is to engage domestic US audiences with international affairs through human-centered journalism that consistently connects the global to the local and builds empathy for people around the world. Over the years, The World has carved out a niche by offering a unique perspective on daily news: covering American issues and events through the eyes of foreign observers, and contextualizing foreign affairs for American listeners. The World is hosted by Marco Werman and produced by WGBH Boston.

UNDERWRITING SUPPORT COMES FROM

WAMC

What is underwriting, you might ask? As a public radio station, we don't carry conventional advertisements. Instead, we offer sponsorship opportunities in the form of underwriting. Underwriting consists of brief radio announcements, or "credits," that inform our listeners about what products, services, or events a business or organization offers. The objective, unbiased approach of underwriting strips away the clutter and loaded language of other advertising. We are extremely grateful to work with hundreds of businesses throughout our listening area. These organizations opt to use their marketing and advertising dollars to share their message with our listeners, all while supporting the station at the same time. We truly appreciate their support and ask you to take a moment to support them! View our Underwriting Directory highlighting all of our underwriters from various industries.

Interested in becoming an underwriter?
It's quick and simple! Visit wamcunderwriting.org/contact-us to get the ball rolling and we'll take it from there.
