Emma C. Smith

STAUNTON — Emma (Cabell) Smith, 90, formerly of 654 E. Beverley St., died on Monday evening (Oct. 3, 1994) at Oak Hill Health Care Center where she had been a resident since 1988.

She was born at Staunton on Aug. 31, 1904, a daughter of Washington J.H. and Emma (Jackson) Cabell, and spent her lifetime here.

She was a member of Augusta Street United Methodist Church, an honorary member of the Administratice Council, former member of the senior choir and other auxiliaries. She was past worthy matron of Radiant Chapter 109, Order of the Eastern Star.

Her husband, Frederick Godfrey Smith, died in 1943.

Surviving are foster god-children Margaret J. Lee and Emigene J. Tate, both of Staunton.

A service will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at Jones Funeral Home by the Rev. Jack H. Pettyjohn, assisted by the ministerial alliance, with burial at Fairview Cemetery, with Eastern Star rites by Radiant Chapter 109.

Pallbearers will be Robert Carter, Arthur Dunnings, Daniel Franklin, William P. Huggard, Paige Kier, William Leach, Warner Mills, William Pleasants, Joseph Tate and A.R. Ware Jr.

Honorary pallbearers will be friends attending the service.

Friends are being received at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Justice Lee, 913 Springhill Road.