Public Outreach

Maine Public recognizes the need to engage the Maine community in both our content and mission and to ensure that we are meeting the needs and preferences of all Mainers. Maine Public connects with our viewers and listeners through a variety of mechanisms including Community Advisory Board (CAB) meetings that are open to the public, Board of Trustees meetings that include opportunities for public comment, community events that include state-wide free public screenings of national and Maine Public programs, a presence at fairs and festivals, and an active digital media presence with a continuously updated website (mainepublic.org) and active social media platforms including Facebook, Threads, Instagram, TikTok, Bluesky, and LinkedIn. Maine Public partners with non-profits across the state to promote their events and initiatives and help drive the success of their efforts. Maine Public culls feedback through a number of vehicles including listener and viewer surveys, a dedicated Audience Services team to manage all incoming queries via phone and email from the general public, and a robust Membership Services team to manage member issues and concerns. Maine Public continues to identify ways to best serve the State of Maine. Among the new contributions was Maine Public's coverage of the Lewiston tragedy. Maine Public's reporting was comprehensive and included two community events in Lewiston and the launch of a podcast series around lessons learned from the mass shooting. Maine Public Classical continued to expand the depth of its locally hosted programming with new show offerings during the weekdays and weekends. Maine Public launched a literacy campaign in partnership with libraries across the state and held a series of Daniel Tiger events to inspire a love of reading in some of Maine's youngest citizens. Maine Public focused on Maine's veterans through a podcast series featuring every branch of service and an accompanying exhibit that toured locations around the state including the Hall of Flags in the state capital. Several existing towers (radio and television) across the state were upgraded, improving the reach and quality of Maine Public's over-the-air services.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Form 990 is reviewed by the President, CFO and Controller at Maine

Public. In addition, the Board of Trustees' Finance Committee reviews and approves the Form 990 and the entire Board of Trustees receives a copy for review prior to its filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
Maine Public provides a conflict-of-interest questionnaire to all Board members and officers annually, Each Board member and officer completes and signs the questionnaire, which is then kept on file. The Employee Handbook specifically addresses conflict of interest concerns.

Organizational Review

Maine Public has administrative offices and production facilities for television, radio and web services in Lewiston, Bangor, Augusta and Portland. The station's transmitters and translators, located throughout the state, deliver programs to nearly all of Maine's citizens. The organization employs 114 full-time and part-time people.

Maine Public is governed by a volunteer Board of Trustees which include the President of Maine Public, a gubernatorial appointee, a University System appointee and up to 24 Community Members from across the State. The Board meets a minimum of four times a year and all meetings are open to the public.

Maine Public has a volunteer community advisory board (CAB) with Membership reflecting the diversity of the state and Maine Public's listeners, viewers, and supporters. The purpose of the CAB is to advise the Board of Trustees and Maine Public staff as to whether the programming and other policies of Maine Public meet the needs of the communities that the station serves. CAB meets twice a year, and its meetings are also open to the public.

Name of the organization: Maine Public Broadcasting Corporation

Employer identification number: 22-3171529

Maine Public's revenues come from the voluntary contributions from over 55,200 individual supporters, as well as underwriting support from businesses and nonprofit organizations. Additional funding is received through an annual appropriation from the state of Maine and from television & radio community service grants from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. Maine Public serves as the backbone of Maine's Emergency Alert System.
