Alignment with the mission of Community Radio for Northern Colorado

Our mission reads, "Community Radio for Northern Colorado's mission is to strengthen our community by cultivating the mind and spirit – informing, inspiring and entertaining." Please share your thoughts regarding how your relationship with CRNC relates to the mission statement.

Please share why you wish to serve on the Board of Directors for CRNC.

Being a board member

The Board of Directors meets quarterly (January, March, June, September) on the second Saturday of the month at 9am at the offices and studios in Greeley. Meetings usually last approximately three hours. There are four standing committees: Community Engagement, Executive Committee, Finance, and Governance. Committee meetings are scheduled as teleconferences on a monthly basis.

Please identify your interest in order of performance for the Community Engagement, Finance and Governance Committee.

What knowledge, skills, and special interests will you bring to the CRNC Board of Directors?

Do you anticipate any conflicts of interest if you become a CRNC Board member? If yes, please explain.
