Behind the Scenes

General Manager’s Newsletter | July 2020

Wyoming Public Media is a service of the University of Wyoming.

---

Wyoming Eagle's Nest Newsletter, July 2020

Dear WPM Member,

Welcome to the July newsletter. We wanted to take a moment to thank you for your support this year. Your generosity has allowed us to meet our annual fundraising goals. We hope you have enjoyed the programming that has been possible through your support.

We are currently fundraising for these signal enhancements. Please contact us if you have any questions or comments at quick@uwyo.edu.

Your support has enabled us to meet the membership goal for this year. Our apprehensions were quickly diminished by your overwhelming support.

Thank you for making it possible for WPM to meet the membership goal for this year. The pandemic continues to affect public broadcasting. A number of distributors, including American Public Media, NPR Connect, and Wyoming Public Radio in October.

Wyoming Public Media, MPJA Award Winner

WPM was awarded the PMJA award for content excellence. The award recognizes the highest level of reporting excellence in public media. WPM has received the award for five consecutive years.

WPM reporter Savannah Mahler is a recipient of a PMJA award. The award recognizes the highest level of reporting excellence in public media. WPM has received the award for five consecutive years.

Share this email:

1. Watch it online. Click on this image for more information.
2. Share this email:

---

NATIONAL STORIES

Celebrate Wyoming Suffrage And Beyond

Wyoming Public Media honors the 150th anniversary of women's right to vote. In 1869, the Wyoming Legislature passed legislation granting women the right to vote and hold office. In 2020, we commemorate the first vote cast by a Wyoming woman. She cast her vote in the small town of Rawlins. The Wyoming Public Media Declaration of Independence at Approx. 6:50 pm.

---

MINING UNIONS LOOK TO COMPEL EMERGENCY COVID-19 GUIDELINES

On the Wind River Reservation, Tribes lead the fight against COVID-19. The Wyoming Public Media Bureau for Indian Country, in collaboration with the Wind River Reservation, has produced a series of podcasts focusing on the challenges and successes of COVID-19 on the Wind River Reservation.

---

Live from Here

Wyoming Public Radio is the first of a series of live music programming for the month of July. The feature is broadcast on Wyoming Public Radio every Thursday evening from 6 to 8 pm.

---

Wyoming Public Media: How to bring you a virtual celebration that truly connects

Wyoming Public Media is here to provide context and common ground as we continue to examine these issues together. WPM volunteers will continue to add resources to our content site.

---

NEWSLETTER SUBSCRIPTIONS

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

This email was sent to

1000 E University Ave Dept 3984
Laramie, WY 82071-2000 US

Got this as a forward?

Share this email:

Wyoming Public Media is a service of the University of Wyoming.

---

NATIONAL STORIES

Wyoming Public Media, MPJA Award Winner

WPM was awarded the PMJA award for content excellence. The award recognizes the highest level of reporting excellence in public media. WPM has received the award for five consecutive years.

WPM reporter Savannah Mahler is a recipient of a PMJA award. The award recognizes the highest level of reporting excellence in public media. WPM has received the award for five consecutive years.

Share this email:

1. Watch it online. Click on this image for more information.
2. Share this email:

---

NATIONAL STORIES

Celebrate Wyoming Suffrage And Beyond

Wyoming Public Media honors the 150th anniversary of women's right to vote. In 1869, the Wyoming Legislature passed legislation granting women the right to vote and hold office. In 2020, we commemorate the first vote cast by a Wyoming woman. She cast her vote in the small town of Rawlins. The Wyoming Public Media Declaration of Independence at Approx. 6:50 pm.

---

MINING UNIONS LOOK TO COMPEL EMERGENCY COVID-19 GUIDELINES

On the Wind River Reservation, Tribes lead the fight against COVID-19. The Wyoming Public Media Bureau for Indian Country, in collaboration with the Wind River Reservation, has produced a series of podcasts focusing on the challenges and successes of COVID-19 on the Wind River Reservation.

---

Live from Here

Wyoming Public Radio is the first of a series of live music programming for the month of July. The feature is broadcast on Wyoming Public Radio every Thursday evening from 6 to 8 pm.

---

Wyoming Public Media: How to bring you a virtual celebration that truly connects

Wyoming Public Media is here to provide context and common ground as we continue to examine these issues together. WPM volunteers will continue to add resources to our content site.

---

NEWSLETTER SUBSCRIPTIONS

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

This email was sent to

1000 E University Ave Dept 3984
Laramie, WY 82071-2000 US

Got this as a forward?

Share this email:

Wyoming Public Media is a service of the University of Wyoming.